

ACCOUNTABILITY COACHING

For powerful, committed and open-minded people with vision and interest in leadership who are standing for outstanding results in their lives and their profession.

We will train and develop you to perform with greater responsibility, accountability and commitment to your life and what you do for living. You will have a clear understanding of your personal and business values and vision and demonstrate a higher level of self-expression.

You will transform the “I’ll do my best” attitude to “I’ll get it done” attitude for yourself and others and you will learn how to build an environment of teamwork, excellence and results by creating “Win-Win” situations.

You will create and invent a new set of personal and professional operational practices that allow you to pursue your goals and be effective.

How it works

This program consists of twelve months of one-on-one coaching and consulting for two hour a month with you and your accountability partner. In this program you, your accountability partner and your coach will work on your commitments through understanding your operational behaviors and their effect on your life & your business. In this program you and your accountability partner will learn and implement systems and structures that will empower you to achieve your goals for your profession as well as your personal life.

In this program you will support and make stand for your greatness as well as your partner’s at the same time.

- ☐ The Basic (Relating to the reality of your world)
And The Advance (Inventing your vision & planning it)
24 hours – 12 months program - 2 call a month

- ☐ Masters – I (Creating & building your mastery)
And Masters – II (Maintaining your mastery & power)
24 hours – 12 months program - 2 call a month

Benefits

- Accomplish more in less time.
- Become a results producer now vs. a “someday, if I can” dreamer.
- Overcome negativity in the workplace.
- Invent and implement targeting, forecasting and tracking systems that allow you to be responsible for your business operations.
- Move strategy into reality.
- Foster honest and effective communications with your co-workers, employees and customers that make a difference.
- Have higher self-confidence and effectiveness by developing “success attitudes.”
- Shift the mindset from problems to solutions.
- Train to focus on and achieve your personal and business purpose and goals.

Note:

- If participants signed up for both The Basics/Advanced and Mastery I / II at the same time they would get 3 extra hours (2 hour to The Basics/Advanced and 1 hours to the Mastery I / II) with no additional charge.
- These extra hours does not apply in the case of the discounted rates.